Calgary Power Grows In Southern Alberta

Mr. H. Klippert, Assistant Manager of Raymond district for Calgary Power, says the best example of Calgary Power's need for expansion is right here in Raymond and district.

There were 457 consumers of electricity in Raymond in 1939. The number had increased to 543 by 1945. Today it has jumped to 663, or 122% of the number in 1945 and 145% of the number in 1939. This is concrete evidence of Raymond's constant growth.

Another interesting set of figures is the amount of electricity being consumed by the customers today, as compared with yesterday. In the year 1939 the total consumption of electricity by household consumers in Raymond was 215,951 kilowatt hours, or an average of 49 kilowatt hours per customer per month. In 1952 householders used 1,526,580 kilowatt hours or an average of 233 kilowatt hours per customer per month, an increase to over 47% since 1939.

While there has been a general increase in the number of consumers being served and an increase in use of electric service all throughout Alberta in some localities it is much more evident than in others.

In 1931, and even in 1939, it was a "Light Bill" people referred to, because the electric current was mostly used for that purpose. Today, however electricity is put to so many household tasks that the term "Light Bill" has changed to the term "Electric Service Bill".

Farm electrification has made great progress in the past six years. In 1947 only a few hundred farmers had central station service. Today more than 22,000 farms in Alberta have been electrified. Plans call for the connecting of four to five thousand more each year for the next several years.

A serious problem which has to be faced these days by power companies as well as by everyone else is the tremendous increase in cost of equipment, supplies and labor. For instance the new generator and turbine now being installed at the Ghost Plant at a cost of over $800,000, could be purchased in 1939 for about one third of today's price, or $266,000.00.

In another case, the quoted price for replacement equipment rose from $19,700 in 1936 to $67,894 in 1952, or an increase to over 300%.

On the other hand the average cost per kilowatt hour of electricity for household use in Raymond today is just about half what the cost was in 1939.

A stork shower was held recently for Mrs. Ted Witbeck at the home of Mrs. Floyd Winters. Barbara Douglas and Georgia Heggie were assisting hostesses.

Sara King underwent a major operation in a Vancouver hospital on Tuesday. Best wishes for a speedy and complete recovery from her many friends in Raymond.

The Rotarians enjoyed Dr. Judd's remarks and extended a welcome to come back again at any time.

Mrs. LaVon Dahl underwent a major operation in a Lethbridge hospital on Thursday. Best wishes for a speedy recovery is wished for her by her many friends.

Warren Jones was the official delegate to the convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities held in Lethbridge recently. The work done by this Union brings about many of the changes made in legislation of provincial business and this year School costs and the attempt by the municipalities to gain the right to tax power companies and provincial land and buildings at the usual rate, were the main topics under discussion. Warren says that it was a very successful convention.

The new president of the Union is Mayor D. H. Mackay of Calgary who will play host at the convention when it convenes in the Stampede City next year. The Cowtowners will be able to go all out at that time because the Union will be celebrating its 50th Anniversary.

LEST WE FORGET

A Special Message to ALL Veterans Wednesday November 11th is Remembrance Day and in this special message I am calling on all Veterans of World War I and II to set an example of reverence for our war dead by being the first to pin on the Poppy, our Badge of Remembrance. The years have past but we have not forgotten our comrades, who fought by our side and who gave their lives for Canada. Now have we forgotten those comrades who came home physically or mentally ill, some still surviving in Veterans Hospitals today. We remember, too, their loved ones left behind. Tre Flanders Poppy is our memorial flower, worn for only a few days each year, in honor of the sacrifice made by so many.

Veterans, I ask for your co-operation in making the observance of Nov-11th, a complete success.

You are asked to meet at the Legion Hall at 10:30 a.m., where we will be joined by the Legion Ladies Auxiliary and the Raymond Air Cadets.

We are deeply indebted to Mr. Roddy Patterson and his Junior Pipe Band who will be present to lead the parade to the Cenotaph.

Following a short memorial Service and the laying of wreaths we will parade to the Stake House for the church Service, which is in charge of Bishop Golden Snow, who is the Legion Padre. At 6:30 p.m. a turkey dinner will be served in the Legion Hall to which all veterans are cordially invited. We have been most fortunate in obtaining as our speaker the Provincial 1st Vice President, Comrade Wm. Williams.

After dinner plan to attend the dance to which the general public is invited.

Veterans, will you be there November 11th, proudly wearing your Poppy?

Legion President,
Comrade Ray Attwood.

The whole Bow river is being forced through the area shown under the bridge-like structure. The dam and power house should be finished this winter. By next fall the project should be producing power. This is just a part of Calgary Power's five-year $60,000,000 expansion program.

MEN

If you smile at a man, he thinks you're flirting. If you don't flirt, he thinks you're an iceberg. If you let him kiss you, he wishes you were more reserved. If you don't, he'll seek consolation elsewhere. If you flatter him, he thinks you're simple. If you don't, he thinks you don't understand him. If you let him make love to you, he thinks you're cheap. If you don't, he'll go out with a girl who will. If you go out with other fellows, he thinks you're fickle. If you don't, he thinks nobody will have you.

Men are like old corks — most pop the question, but a few have to be drawn out.

Police found this message written on an overtime parking ticket and tied to a parking meter:

"I'm from the country, in town buying winter clothes. With clothes so high and farm produce so low, I didn't have a penny left."

Only a glimpse
 But the little house
 From a passing car —
 Laughed in the gloom
 And the door stood wide
 As a happy shout —
 And I knew I had seen
 A HOME!

One Bear Killed But 5 Others Seen Close to Pt. Arthur

 With five hungry bears reported to be roaming within the city limits of Port Arthur, Ont., housewives are keeping their children safely indoors. Steve Kalushka, a part-time farmer, felled this 100-pound bruin with an axe, but several others are still on the loose. Officials believe heavy influx of starving bears on the lakehead cities is due to a late frost last spring which killed the berries, leaving the animals minus their main source of food.

An Old Time Radio

(Taken from the Brooks Bulletin). A district farmer has an old-time radio, a crystal set, with earphones attached thereto. He dug it out of the attic and proceeded to listen to Calgary. One of the radio stations there was broadcasting highway information, another was giving a farm broadcast, while an evangelical sermon was booming out of the third.

Here is what the farmer heard:

"Now Ezekiel tells us that baby chicks should detour west of Bassano and listen to the word of the prophet saying use great care in the selection of your eggs and you will run into a few mudholes between here and Gleichen.

"We find in Genesis that the roads are soft and treacherous just west of the henhouse, but if you take them out and clean them thoroughly each day and place clean straw in the nests you will be well repaid; otherwise your soul is in danger.

"After you leave Duchess purchase your baby chicks from a reliable hatchery and make a detour where Balam was spoken to by his ass, for the baby chicks are liable to get the pip and the Alberta government is spending ten million dollars on new highways.

"There was a washout on the highway near Tilley and the road to salvation is undergoing repairs, making it necessary to keep an even heat in the brooder of about 70 degrees. Unless you do these things the wrath of God will make the pin feathers drop just south of the cemetery.

"Many are called but few have any luck unless the gravelled road just west of Medicine Hat is mixed with bran. With 500 pullets one should get as far as Dunmore, where Noah was commanded to build an ark one mile east of Irvine. Remember, my friends the command was given to Noah use whitewash very liberally at the first sign of lice before the trumpet of Gabriel sounds and it is too late to watch the ditches a the side of the road going to Saskatchewan."

After listening to the above our friend says that the old crystal set is better than a vaudeville show!

Decision Expected on Export of Natural Gas from Prairies to Eastern Canada

Alberta oil men are as much interested in the piping of natural gas eastward as they are in the production of oil. For four years the building of pipelines and the export of natural gas has been a major issue.

Two firms, Trans-Canada and Western, are all that are left in the race to pipe natural gas from Alberta. Both plan on all-Canadian routes. It is a $300,000,000 proposition to build a 30-inch pipeline to Montreal. The decision to export the gas is expected to come from Alberta authorities in November. If the pipeline runs through Northern Ontario, mines along the route are expected to use as much gas as the metropolitan areas.
